Synthetic risk and reward profile

The Sub-Fund is ranked at 3 reflecting observed historical returns. This is not a measure of any risk of capital but rather a measure of the past fluctuations in the value of the Sub-Fund.

The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may shift over time. The indicator uses a standard calculation method that is used by all UCITS funds.

The risk category indicator is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of future risk profile.

The lowest Category 1 does not mean "risk free".

The following are risks materially relevant to the Sub-Fund which are not adequately captured by the indicator:

- Liquidity Risk – lower liquidity means there are insufficient buyers or sellers to allow the Sub-Fund to readily buy or sell investments.
- Investment Market Risk – the value of investments in the Sub-Fund are subject to a variety of factors affecting global stock markets.
- Operational Risk – the impact of breakdowns in systems, internal procedures and human error.

- Currency Risk - the value of the Sub-Fund may be affected by changes in currency exchange rates for those securities held in a non-base currency (USD).
- Derivative Risk – Derivative instruments may be used for hedging and EPM. This may result in gains or losses greater than the amount invested. While there is no guarantee they may protect against risk.
- Counterparty Risk– the Sub-Fund is subject to the risk that third parties with which the Sub-Fund may transact may go bankrupt or fail to pay money due to the Sub-Fund or return property belonging to the Sub-Fund.
- Credit Risk – issuers of bonds held may default on their obligations or have their credit rating downgraded, possibly resulting in temporary or permanent decrease in the value of those bonds. Potential exposure to risks associated with investment grade bonds meaning they may produce a higher level or income but also carry greater risk.
- Performance Risk – the Sub-Fund performance is at risk if it holds significant cash or near cash weighting if investment markets generally rose during this period.

For further details please refer to Section 4 - Risk Factors in the Fund's Prospectus.
